

The Worthy Mentor Program is designed to connect local churches with women who have experienced unexpected pregnancy. These women may be healing from abortion or facing a decision to parent their child or make an adoption plan. Using a holistic model of care, Worthy church partners offer loving support to vulnerable women through one-on-one mentoring relationships that are guided by a 10-week, biblical study.

WAYS TO DO WORTHY: INDIVIDUALIZED OR COHORT

INDIVIDUALIZED	COHORT
 Women referred/identified are matched with mentors at different times. 	 Women referred/identified are enrolled in a cohort consisting of other mentors/mentees.
 All interactions are one-on-one (between mentor/mentee). 	 Most interactions are one-on- one (between mentor/mentee), and there are built-in group
 Completion of the Worthy Workbook is self-paced. 	experiences that take place at the church.
	 Completion of the Worthy Workbook is set by the Cohort.

There is more than one way to achieve a meaningful Worthy experience for Mentors and Mentees. There are benefits to both approaches, but keep in mind the goals of the Worthy program – to connect women to the local church for support and to point them to Christ as their Savior.
