

Lifeline Children Services is honored and grateful to combine our efforts with domestic and international entities to advance the Gospel and benefit vulnerable children. We seek to partner with like-minded, biblical churches and organizations, but this does not mean we always endorse or condone all messages, materials, beliefs, or behaviors of these groups.