In Country Process:
Number of Trips to Taiwan	2 trips
Length of Travel	Trip 1: 4-6 days Trip 2: 7-10 days
Trip 1	The family will attend a court hearing; this could be the first or second court hearing. The family may also have an opportunity to spend time with their child and the child's birth family.	Approximately one month after the second court hearing, judge makes the final ruling. The second trip is scheduled approximately two to three months after the first trip, after the final ruling is received.
Trip 2	The family will attend the AIT appointment where they will receive their child's visa and passport. A family will also participate in Gradual Bonding with their child.
Gradual Bonding	The family will spend time with their child, along with a social worker from Cathwel. Gradual bonding typically lasts 3 days, and a family will typically pick up their child on the last day of gradual bonding.	The family will then spend a few more days in country to adjust to living with their child before they travel home.
